Grand Pacific Health Support at Home Program

Price Guide

Our Support at Home service brings together a wide range of services tailored to each individual's needs including personal care, domestic assistance and meal preparation, nursing, allied health and social support. Every care plan is tailored to meet individual needs, ensuring dignity and wellbeing remain at the heart of everything we do.

Independence

Support to help you maintain independence and continue to manage everyday activities and living well at home. Our team provides caring, respectful support with daily tasks such as self-care, social and cultural connection and transport. No matter the level of help you need, we're committed to helping you live comfortably at home. Equipment, products and minor home modifications can be provided under the Assistive Technology and Home Modifications Scheme (AT-HM)

Care Management Fees

A 10% care management fee will be deducted from your quarterly budget and allocated to our care management account.

Your care management fee covers the planning and coordination of your support ensuring you receive the right support for your needs. Your care partner is dedicated to coordinating your services, checking in regularly and adjusting care as your needs evolve, so you can live safely and comfortably at home. This ensures your experience is safe, seamless and tailored to what matters most to you.

Client Contributions

Under Support at Home, you may be asked to contribute towards the cost of your services. The amount you pay depends on your circumstances and the types of services you receive. Contributions are set by the Australian Government following an income and asset assessment completed by Services Australia. Indicative client contribution rates are outlined below.

	Clinical Services	Independence Supports	Everyday Living Supports
Full pensioner	0%	5%	17.5%
Part pensioner or self-funded retiree eligible for a CSHC	0%	Between 5%-50%	Between 17.5%-80%
Self-funded retiree not eligible for a CSHC	0%	50%	80%

* Commonwealth Seniors Health Card (CSHC)

 Australian Government covers the remaining percentage

If you are required to pay a contribution, Services Australia will let you know the amount. We will then provide you with a monthly invoice that clearly outlines any contributions you need to pay, if applicable. More information is available at: Support at Home fee estimator | My Aged Care

GST: Where services are delivered by an associated provider on behalf of GPH, the cost of these services may include GST. This applies where the associated provider is registered for GST and the service is not classified as GST-free under the Goods and Services Tax Act 1999. Any applicable GST will be included in the price charged to the Support at Home Package.
